

Campus Crime Warning

In case of reported violent or property crimes, if the college administration determines there is a continuing danger to the college community, a published warning will be distributed to students and staff via all media available to the college's disposal.