

Insurance Information

The Minnesota State College and University System offers a group health insurance plan for students. The cost of the plan is approximately $500 per year. Students participating in organized athletics are required to carry accident insurance. All students enrolled in the health sciences programs are required to carry liability insurance prior to their enrollment in clinical courses.