

MASTER COURSE OUTLINE

A. THTR 2297 World Cultural Studies – Research Option

B. COURSE DESCRIPTION:

Global culture comes alive as students experience a major international city and its surrounding areas. This travel/study opportunity gives students a first-hand look at international theater, art, music, and daily culture. Faculty members provide guidance and support while giving students the freedom to explore their own areas of interest. Pre-trip classes help prepare students to gain the most from an exciting and memorable trip abroad. Students enrolled in the Research Option will conduct additional research while abroad and prepare a research project on a topic of their choosing. A special fee is charged to cover travel expenses. Student must be co-enrolled in MUSC 2297.
