

MASTER COURSE OUTLINE

A. HUMA 1102 Humanities II

B. COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This course examines the High Renaissance including the challenge of the Protestant Reformation and its response—the Counter Reformation. A view of the Baroque style in art, architecture and literature is counterpointed by examining the rise of science with its confidence in the power of human reason and culminating with an analysis of eighteenth century art, music, and society. Students will investigate the progress from Realism to Modernism in the 19th, 20th, and 21st Centuries. In all content areas instruction will focus and emphasis will be placed on history, literature, art, philosophy, architecture, music, and archeology. This course may also include arts and culture in non-Western societies.
