

Procedures to Obtain Program Major Completion and Graduation Rates

All prospective and current students shall have access to accurate and uniform employment follow-up information on occupational programs offered by the College to help them make informed decisions about program choices. Riverland Community College complies with U.S. Department of Education standards on the use and publication of student employment follow-up data. This information may be obtained in the Riverland Placement Office.