

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES ASSESSMENT PROJECT: THE SLOAP FY22-FY24 CYCLE

IT'S AS EASY AS 1-2-3

1. ONE PURPOSE: Providing the best education for Riverland students

As faculty, we are assessing levels of student learning almost continually. Whether watching for visual cues from students' faces during lecture, giving feedback on homework, issuing grades, or a host of other ways, we care about teaching and learning. SLOAP offers a glimpse into some of the ways we assess and improve learning.

2. TWO 'SNAPSHOTS' OF TEACHING & LEARNING IN YOUR CLASSES

Faculty teaching in Career/Technical/Programs

1. one plan that assesses a Core Theme
Riverland's Core Themes
Goal 2: Critical Thinking
Goal 7: Human Diversity
Goal 8: Global Perspectives
Goal 9: Ethical & Civic Responsibility
Goal 10: People & the Environment
2. one plan* that assesses a Course-Specific (CS) Outcome
*this should be from a different course than the Core Theme plan

Faculty teaching in Liberal Arts Disciplines

1. one plan that assesses a Core Theme
Riverland's Core Themes
Goal 2: Critical Thinking
Goal 7: Human Diversity
Goal 8: Global Perspectives
Goal 9: Ethical & Civic Responsibility
Goal 10: People & the Environment
2. one plan* that assesses a Discipline Goal
*this should be from a different course than the Core Theme plan
Riverland's Discipline Area Goals
Goal 1: Communication
Goal 3: Natural Sciences
Goal 4: Mathematical/Logical Reasoning
Goal 5: History and the Social and Behavioral Sciences
Goal 6: The Humanities and the Fine Arts

Please refer to note on next page regarding Core Themes & Discipline Areas when crafting your plans.

3. REPORT & REPEAT

REPORT by last contract day of Spring semester 2022 (May 13, 2022)

- faculty administer the assessment
- gather and summarize results
- create an action for improvement
 - modifying teaching or learning strategies
 - modifying assessment tool/method
 - or any combination of the above

REPEAT the REPORTING process with these same assessments in FY 23 and FY 24

That's it! See additional resources for help creating, entering, and reporting on your plans.
